The Appomattox County School Board will hold its monthly meeting Friday at 3 p.m. in the board room of the school board office on Main Street in Appomattox.

Exchange Student

Following a six month stay in the US, Perla plans to return to Argentina and continue doing political research and teach either in a high school or at a university.

"I lived doing the research," says Perla, "We have a different method of holding an election in Argentina. Each party is placed on the ballot in a line. A winner must have 50 per cent plus one vote. If there is no winner after the first vote, the two with a majority have run-off until one is declared a winner."

Miss Soberon has no plans to marry at the present time, but says, "That is something one never knows about very far in advance."

Perla's mother is a medical doctor specializing in obstetrics and her father has gone into business in Bahia Blanca. "Don't ask me what kind of business he is in," she says, "Although we are a very close family, I have been away at school and I really don't know what kind of business my father is doing."

Perla has traveled most of the eastern states and has also seen some of the western states and parts of Canada, but she says that Virginia is her favorite state.

Miss Soberon plans to travel quite a bit during her current visit, and if the opportunity for employment and future citizenship presents itself during her stay, she may decide to move to the states for good.

CVCC to Offer Course In Banking and Financial Management

LYNCHBURG, VA., Sept. 5, 1974 . . . Beginning this fall, Central Virginia Community College, in cooperation with the Lynchburg Chapter, American Institute of Banking, will offer an Associate in Applied Science degree in Banking and Financial Management.

This two-year, six-quarter program consists of 97 hours, approximately 45 of which will be taught at the college, with the remaining 52 hours being conducted in the Lynchburg banks. Curriculum during the first year is similar to other curricula in business. In the second year, the student will pursue his specialty in banking and financial management. This will include professional courses in banking and finance, courses in related areas, general education and electives. Instruction will include both theoretical concepts and practical applications.

This new program offers an opportunity for bank employees throughout Lynchburg and surrounding areas to broaden their professional skills.

Acteens Meet

The Hollywood Acteens held their regular meeting August 26 at Hollywood Baptist Church. Christmas in August was observed by bringing special gifts to be sent to individual missionaries in the United States.

Each member also exchanged Christmas and decorated the meeting room with the Theme of Christmas.

Delorious Deaner introduced a Program day of Prayer for State Missions for Acteens, September 26, 1974. The program will be held at 7:00 p.m. at their leader's home, Julia Wingfield.

Martha Maxwell will have also at that meeting a study and question session on the book, "From Haystacks to Skylabs."

After a short business session meeting was adjourned by prayer. Then Christmas refreshments were served by all the Acteens.

We also had guest at the August meeting, they were: Mrs. M. J. Coleman, Mrs. Raymond Franklin and Miss Pamela Franklin.

as tobacco. These beverages weaken the willpower and encourage a craving for tobacco. We have placed them on a diet of fruit, fruit juices, and water, without other foods for the first day. This diet is designed to hasten the elimination of poisons in the body which have accumulated through the use of tobacco.

The group was told, however, that the worse was past, and more of the ordinary foods would be included in the diet.

Another color film was shown, "Time Pulls the Trigger." This film emphasizes in animated style, the ill-effect of smoking on the heart and circulatory system as well as on the lungs. He stated that one cigarette shortens the length of one's life by 11.5 minutes.

Pastor Brodersen emphasized the importance of strengthening the will power through the exercise of right choice, and urged that the group seek divine aid in overcoming the tobacco habit.

By last night thirteen were still progressing with the Plan and were exercising their will power.

The Five-Day Plan is being sponsored by the Seventh-day Adventist Church as a community service. The Plan is successfully operating in most countries of the world.

comprehension, critical comprehension and study skills. The thirty-five objectives for the mathematics program include numeration, operations of whole and fractional numbers, geometry, measurement, and graphing.

Classroom teachers are being assisted in the Skills Development Program by employment of additional personnel which include one reading teacher and two teacher aides. The additional positions and the purchase of equipment and supplementary materials were made possible through the allocation of special funds to the local school division.

Attend State Meeting

Mrs. James Nolen, left, President of the Appomattox Junior Woman's Club, and Mrs. John Canada, Alice Kyle District Vice-Chairman of Conservation, attended the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs Board of Directors meeting August 20-21, at the University of Richmond. Mrs. Daniel S. Spiers, President of the Virginia Federation, presided over the two-day meeting attended by 681 clubwomen from throughout the state. Delegates attended programs and workshops including guest speakers and information on projects of the women's clubs for the upcoming two years, all centering on the theme: "What's past is prologue; what to come is your and my discharge."

Jimmy Simpson of Route 1, Appomattox holds sweet potato weighing two pounds, nine ounces. Simpson planted potatoes of Red Yam variety June 22 and digging over a bushel and a-half per hill.

SWCB Estimates Treatment Costs

The total cost for compliance with federal standards for wastewater treatment in Virginia by 1983 has been estimated at 21.9 billion dollars, according to the 1974 "Needs Survey" recently completed by the State Water Control Board, with the assistance of several of the State's Planning District Commissions.

Of that total, 19.7 billion dollars was estimated as the cost for developing treatment for storm water runoff in the State.

The next major water pollutant after municipal sewage and industrial wastes, storm water runoff at present receives almost no treatment in Virginia, except in those few localities with combined sewerage systems.

Eugene T. Jensen, Executive Secretary of the SWCB, explained that last year's 1973 Virginia Needs Assessment of 1,7 billion dollars emphasized sewage treatment and excluded the costs of treating storm water runoff. In recognition of the harmful effects of runoff, Congress has required that cost estimates for treating runoff be included in the 1974 "Needs Assessment."

The remainder of the total 1974 "Needs Survey" amounts to 2.2 billion dollars, approximately 0.5 billion dollars more than the 1973 estimates. Much of this difference will go toward correcting infiltration/in f low conditions and to providing a more stringent level of treatment than secondary in urban areas.

Share-The Fun To Be Held At Rustburg

A Share the Fun Taient Contest will conclude the events of the "Ye Olde County Fair" to be held in Rustburg on Oct. 4 & 5 at the Middle School.

pressure on Thornton most of the night, not giving the Cavalier quarterback time to set up and throw his passes.

The running game for the Cavaliers was almost entirely ineffective as they could muster only six yards net for the game, losing five yards in the final half and a net of minus three yards in the second quarter.

When Thronton did have time to deliver the ball, Ricky Wingfield, Keith Coleman, Tommy Wingfield and Tony Snell were on hand to bat the ball away or make a tackle after short gains by the Cavalier receiving corps of Callahan, Gary Brown and Calvin Thomas.

Keith Coleman intercepted a Thronton pass in the closing minutes of the game to kill a Forest scoring threat and Ricky Wingfield helped stall another drive early in the fourth stanza when he picked off an errant toss at the Appomattox 16-yard line.

A dejected Glen Styles, coach of Jefferson Forest, said, "I really thought we were going to pull this one out. The momentum shifted to us during the fourth quarter, but the raiders just refused to give up. I think we played a pretty good ball game, we just made too many mistakes.

"Appomattox has much improved ball team. They should do well in the district. Of course we have a pretty fair ball club too. Some other teams will hear from us before the season is over," concluded Styles.

Reynolds finished the evening with 46 yards rushing in 10 attempts while Keith Coleman had 22 yards, also with 10 carries. Weaver completed five of 24 passes for 76 yards and Eggleston was one for two for seven yards.

In other Seminole action, the rejuvinated Gretna Hawks faught to a 6-6 tie with Rustburg; Amherst came from behind in the final quarter to edge Nelson County, 15-14; Brookville trounced Staunton River, 28-6 and Liberty downed Altavista, 21-7.

Friday night Appomattox will host yet to play William Campbell. The Generals had an open date the first week of the season so Raiders' coach Jerry Robinson has not had the opportunity to scout the Naruna school.

William Campbell coach Ronnie Cox will have either Allen Harper or Kip Burch at the controls of his split "T" offense with William Mitchell and Alvin Younger as the running backs.

Ricky Davis will probably start at wingback with George Smith and Boo Younger at end.

Robinson will probably go with Weaver at quarterback, Reynolds and Keith Coleman at running back and Hancock at fullback.

Kelso and Wingfield will be the ends with Ramsey at center, Baxter and Quinn at the guards and Hix and Warren Coleman at tackle.

JV's Open Season Today

Appomattox County High School's junior varsity open the 1974 football season tonight as they travel to Naruna to battle William Campbell's little Generals in a 6 o'clock game.

Coaches Jim Eckhardt and Cody Dickerson have worked hard to prepare the baby Raiders for the defense of the Seminole District JV crown they won last season with 8-0-1 record.

"We don't have a set line-up yet," Eckardt said Tuesday. "We have a number of boys who have looked good, but it is difficult to say right now who will start."

Freddie Mitchell and Andy Wingfield have been sharing the quarterbacking duties in pre-season drills with R. L. Harris, Donald Parris and Tim Page doing most of the work at center.

Guards are Robert Dyess, Phillip Seay, Ron Abernathy and Andrew Kelso while Mark Krakewski, Bobby Harris, Tim Martin, Bill Vaughan and John Hudson have been working at the tackle slots.

Tommy Goode, Anthony Johnson, Criss Johnson and Tony Smith have been sharing the end positions with Ronnie Preston, John Rothgeb, Jay Franklin, Roy Davidson, Don Guill, Todd Roach and Dave Harvey carrying the ball from the running back slots.

Appomattox has an open date next week before entertaining Staunton River Sept. 26, then travel to Gretna Oct. 3. Amherst will visit the baby Raiders Oct. 10 and Altavista will provide the opposition Oct. 17 when Appomattox Oct. 24 then Appomattox takes a trip to Nelson County Oct. 31 for a game with the Governors before returning for the final game of the season here with Rustburg, Nov. 7.

Tigers Name New Cage Coach

HAMPDEN-SYDNEY - Donald Puckett Thompson, formerly head basketball coach at Halifax County Senior High School, has been appointed basketball coach for Hampden-Sydney College, according to J. Stokeley Fulton, director of athletics.

He replaces Homer G. Garr, who resigned the position in August to become assistant headmaster and basketball coach at Prince Edward Academy in Farmville.

Thompson is a 1961 graduate of Lynchburg College and received his Masters Degree in education from Lynchburg College in 1968. While at Halifax, he compiled a record of 39 wins and 13 losses, which includes 2 district championships and 2 regional championships. Both years his team also reached the State Tournament finals losing to state champion Petersburg High School. He was named All-Star Basketball Coach in 1973 and 1974 by the Virginia High School Coaches Association.

Thompson has also coached at Amherst County High School and Altavista High School, compiling records of 114 wins/31 losses and 61 wins/ 23 losses respectively. He will begin practice for the 1974-75 season on Oct. 15th with 13 returning players.

Coach Thompson and his wife, Joyce, are the parents of two children.
